27 Things to Do in June

MARCO BERTOLINI

« June 2 Side Bar Mixology Class

Channel your inner cocktail shaker at this new mixology class, held the first Thursday of the month at Side Bar in the Gaslamp, where you'll learn bartender basics and Side Bar signature recipes, and be well on your way to becoming the host with the most at your next soirée. 7 p.m., 619-646-0946, sidebarsd.com.

June 1, 8, 15, 22, 29 Stone Late Night Movies

You know it's officially summer at Stone Brewing World Bistro and Gardens when the beer mecca breaks out the big screen for open-air movie viewing. Stone appeals to "dudes" everywhere with its June 1 kickoff film, The Big Lebowski. Just prepare to swap your White Russian for a Stone Imperial Russian Stout. 8:50 p.m. every Wednesday through August 31, 760-294-7866, stoneworldbistro.com/movies.

June 1-September 25 Old Globe Theatre's Summer Shakespeare Festival

The bard is back at the Old Globe, as the Balboa Park theatre celebrates its 76th year as a San Diego theatrical institution. This year's festival lineup features three Shakespeare productions, The Tempest, Much Ado About Nothing, and Amadeus, all performed in the Lowell Davies Festival Theatre. 619-234-5623, theoldglobe.org.
